

It is imperative that captioning on television appear for ALL programming and that standards be set for QUALITY LEVEL 0 95 to 98 percent. People with hearing loss and foreign language speaking people need to be able to access this and have it understood and correctly spelled at all times.